

Beegle-Levin Strategies

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

When it comes to business, just as with all other walks of life, it's not just what you know, but also who you know. I help you leverage your existing connections, background and experience into invaluable resources for your growing business. We'll create a plan where you will be confident in implementing your strategy without concern for losing existing relationships when you try to mix friendship and business.

Concerned about your lack of a network to start with? We'll grow that network together, using my depth of experience in government relations and policy analysis. Know the rules and the players governing your area of business, and you will be that much more of an intelligent owner set up for success.

OBJECTIVES

We will ensure you have a solid understanding of the current policies affecting your field of business. We will develop a plan to ensure you make issues known to your local, state and federal representatives. Additionally, we will develop a plan for you to join the associations that will most effectively help you network and advocate for your business.

- Understand the laws and regulations affecting your business
- Develop a plan of action and topics for meeting with your local, state and federal representatives and government agencies
- Gain insight on the associations and memberships that will be most helpful for you
